- (D) The Tribal Election Committee must investigate each challenge submitted and issue a written statement of findings to the challenger and the challenged voter within ten (10) business days from the receipt of the written challenge. The decision of the Tribal Election Committee shall be final and not subject to further appeal.

(E) A voter residency challenge may only be made in accordance with this Section. Voter residency challenges are not permitted under any other provision of this Code.

(2) If the prospective voter does not meet the six (6) month residency requirement, the voter shall be allowed to vote in the community in which he last met the residency requirements.

(3) If, after the appropriate investigation, the TEC is unable to confirm a challenged voter resides in the community, and the challenged voter does not respond to rebut the residency challenge, the TEC may remove the voter from the voter list for the community for which the challenge was based. The voter will be required to register in the community where they show proof of residency.

CHAPTER 3. ELECTIONS

§33-3-1 Regular Tribal Election

(1) There shall be an official regular Tribal election held throughout the eight (8) recognized Choctaw communities to choose members of the Tribal Council of the Mississippi Band of Choctaw Indians and the Tribal Chief of the Mississippi Band of Choctaw Indians. Beginning with the second Tuesday of June of 1975, a regular Tribal election shall be held in June of every odd-numbered year.

(2) Pursuant to Section 9 of Article V of the Constitution, the term of office for the Tribal Chief shall be four (4) years and until a successor has been elected and seated.

(3) Pursuant to Section 6 of Article V of the Constitution, the term of office for members of the Tribal Council shall be four (4) years and until their successors are duly elected and seated. The number of Tribal Council members to be elected to represent a given Choctaw community in a given election year, shall be as provided in the Revised Constitution and Bylaws of the Mississippi Band of Choctaw Indians, or amendments thereto.

(4) Unless otherwise established by the Tribal Council, other Tribal elections as defined in this Code shall be scheduled to coincide with the regular Tribal Council election.

§33-3-2 Special Elections

Special elections are elections other than a regular Tribal election and may be set for the following purposes:

(1) To fill vacancies in the Tribal Council or the Tribal Chief's Office. A special election for this purpose shall be held within sixty (60) days of the occurrence of the vacancy if more than one (1) year remains of the term of office for the Tribal Council member or Tribal Chief whose office has been vacated.

(2) For a run-off election between candidates in a regular Tribal election for Tribal Chief or Tribal Council. Due to the short timeframe for a run-off election, there will be no new voter registrations and no voter residency challenge options available. Absentee ballot requests for a run-off election may be made in accordance with Section 33-7-6(10) of this Code. In the event a run-off election is necessary, the run-off election shall be held within thirty (30) calendar days of the initial election, unless a properly perfected election appeal under Chapter 10 is pending. In such a case, the run-off election, if still necessary, will be conducted within thirty (30) calendar days of a final ruling by the Tribal Election Committee or by the Choctaw Supreme Court.

(3) For a recall election. The rules and procedures for a recall election are governed by Section 33-3-3 of this Code.

- (4) For a referendum election held to determine the will of the Choctaw People. The rules and procedures for a referendum election are governed by Section 33-3-4 of this Code.
- (5) For a referendum and initiative election under Article XI of the Revised Constitution. The rules and procedures for a referendum and initiative election are governed by Chapter 11 of this Code.
- (6) To fill vacancies in the Tribal Council or the Tribal Chief's Office after an election for a particular office has been voided by either the Tribal Election Committee or the Choctaw Supreme Court under the election appeal provisions in Chapter 10 of this Code. All rules and procedures applicable to a regular Tribal election apply to a special election set for this purpose. The election to be held after a voided election shall only be for the particular office(s) that was the subject of the election appeal.

§33-3-3 Recall Elections

- (1) Pursuant to Article VI, Sec. 7 of the Revised Constitution and By-Laws of the Mississippi Band of Choctaw Indians, a recall election shall be held when a sufficient number of voters in one of the eight (8) recognized Choctaw communities submit a petition for a recall of a Tribal council member elected by that community. Pursuant to Article VI, Section 9 of the Revised Constitution and By-Laws of the Mississippi Band of Choctaw Indians, a recall election shall be held when a sufficient number of voters in the Tribe submit a petition for a recall of the Tribal Chief.
- (2) In order to initiate a recall election, the following requirements must be met:
 - (A) A petition seeking a recall election of a Tribal Council member or the Tribal Chief must be submitted at least six months prior to the expiration of the term of the Tribal Council member or the Tribal Chief. No recall election will be held if there is less than six months remaining in the term of the Tribal Council member or the Tribal Chief at the time a recall petition is submitted.
 - (B) A recall petition form must be requested from the Tribal Election Committee, and the date the petition form is issued by the Tribal Election Committee must be included on the form. Requestors may make copies of the recall petition form as needed to accommodate the required number of signatures, provided that all completed recall petition forms must have the issuance date. Only the officially issued recall petition form or true copies of that form will be accepted by the Tribal Election Committee.
 - (C) Along with the recall petition form, the Tribal Election Committee shall provide the requesting party with a list of registered voters from that community, or all registered Tribal voters in the case of a recall for the Tribal Chief.
 - (D) The Tribal Election Committee shall determine the number of signatures of eligible voters that are needed to meet the minimum 40% percent of eligible voters' signatures required by Article VI, Sec. 7 or Sec. 9 of the MBCI Constitution. The Tribal Election Committee shall then provide the requesting party with this information. "Eligible voters" shall mean all of the registered voters in that community at the time the recall petition is initiated. It does not mean only those voters who voted in the last election.

- (E) The Tribal Election Committee shall notify either the Chief or the Tribal Council member who is the intended subject of the recall within two (2) business days of providing the blank recall petition form.
- (F) Parties seeking to initiate a recall election shall have twenty-five (25) business days from the issuance date shown on the recall petition form to gather the requisite number of signatures and file the completed recall petition forms. Completed recall petition forms received after the deadline will not be accepted.
- (G) Completed recall petition forms must contain all of the required information, including the requisite number of signatures of eligible voters from that community and the reason for seeking a recall of the Tribal Council member or the Tribal Chief.
- (H) Completed recall petitions for the recall of a Tribal Council member shall be filed with the Tribal Chief, or their designated representative. The Tribal Chief, or their designated representative, shall stamp each petition page showing the date received. Within two (2) business days of receipt of the completed recall petitions, the Tribal Chief shall notify the Tribal Election Committee of the receipt of the recall petitions and shall forward the petitions to the Tribal Election Committee for review and certification. The Tribal Chief shall also give written notice to the Tribal Council member who is the subject of the proposed recall, with a copy to the entire Tribal Council, that recall petitions have been received by the Tribal Chief and that such petitions will be forwarded to the Tribal Election Committee for review and certification.
- (I) Completed recall petitions for the recall of the Tribal Chief shall be filed with the Tribal Council Committee System Coordinator as the designated representative of the Tribal Council. The Tribal Council Committee System Coordinator shall stamp each petition page showing the date received. Within two (2) business days of receipt of the completed recall petitions, the Tribal Council Committee System Coordinator shall notify the Tribal Election Committee of the receipt of the recall petitions and shall forward the petitions to the Tribal Election Committee for review and certification. The Tribal Council Committee System Coordinator shall also give written notice to the Tribal Chief who is the subject of the proposed recall, with a copy to the entire Tribal Council, that recall petitions have been received by the Tribal Council and that such petitions will be forwarded to the Tribal Election Committee for review and certification.
- (J) Within five (5) business days of receipt of the completed recall petitions from either the Tribal Chief's Office or the Tribal Council Committee System Coordinator, the Tribal Election Committee shall review and verify that the petitions contain the required number of signatures to meet the requisite 40% of eligible voters required to initiate a recall election, and shall verify that the eligible voters' signatures and information contained on the petitions are valid.
- (K) If the Tribal Election Committee determines that there is an insufficient number of valid signatures of eligible voters to meet the 40% of eligible voters requirement, the Tribal Election Committee shall notify the requesting party of the deficiency. If the deadline for submission of petitions has not passed at the time the Tribal Election Committee issues its decisions, the requesting party shall be allowed to collect such other voter signatures as needed to meet the required percentage and turn in the additional signatures by the deadline. If the submission deadline has passed at the time the Tribal Election Committee issues its decision, the requesting party shall not be allowed to submit additional signatures and the Tribal Election Committee shall treat the submitted petitions as not meeting the required number of signatures and shall not take further action on the recall matter.

- (L) If the 40% of eligible voters requirement is satisfied, the Tribal Election Committee shall issue a certification that the completed petitions meet the requirements necessary under Article VI, Sec. 7 or Sec. 9 of the Constitution and By-Laws to initiate a recall election. The Tribal Election Committee's certification shall be sent to the Tribal Council, along with a copy to the requesting party and the Tribal Chief or Tribal Council member who is the subject of the proposed recall. The Tribal Council shall then call a special election on the issue of the recall of the identified Tribal Council member or the Tribal Chief to be held within sixty (60) calendar days.

(3) At least 60% of the persons eligible to vote in the election must participate in the recall election, and a majority of those voting in that recall election must vote to recall the Tribal Council member or the Tribal Chief in order for the Tribal Council member or the Tribal Chief to be recalled.

(4) If the results of the recall election are to recall the Tribal Council member, then the vacancy shall be filled in accordance with Article VI, Sections 1 and 2 of the Revised Constitution and By-Laws of the Mississippi Band of Choctaw Indians, which calls for appointment by the Tribal Chief if there is less than one (1) year remaining in the Tribal Council member's term, or a special election if there is more than one (1) year remaining in the term.

(5) If the results of the recall election are to recall the Tribal Chief, then the vacancy shall be filled in accordance with Article VI, Sections 3 and 4 of the Revised Constitution and By-Laws of the Mississippi Band of Choctaw Indians, which calls for the vice-chief of the Tribal Council to automatically fill the position of Tribal Chief if there is less than one (1) year remaining in the term of the Tribal Chief, or a special election if there is more than one (1) year remaining in the term of the Tribal Chief.

(6) A special election to fill a vacancy created by a recall election shall be conducted by the Tribal Election Committee in accordance with this Code.

§33-3-4 Referendum Elections Held to Determine the Will of the Choctaw People

(1) A referendum may be called by the Tribal Chief, Tribal Council, or any arm of the Tribal government (Housing Authority, etc.) at any time that that arm of the Tribal government shall determine that an issue is of sufficient importance that no informal method shall be sufficient for such a determination of the will of the Choctaw people.

- (2) All applicable sections of this Code shall govern the conduct of such a referendum with the exception of the specific instructions in Section 33-3-4(3).
- (3) For such a referendum, the following special provisions shall apply:
 - (A) The results of such a referendum shall be considered official if 40% of the registered voters eligible to vote in that election shall have voted.
 - (B) A proposition brought before the Choctaw people in such a referendum shall be held to have been approved if a majority of the voters vote affirmatively.
- (4) In special situations in which the arm of the Tribal government requesting such a referendum shall determine that only a portion of the total number of Tribal members eligible to vote are to be affected by the decision, and therefore should be allowed to vote, their determination shall be followed if and only if:
 - (A) The Tribal Council shall agree to the determination of the arm of government in a formal vote.
 - (B) All such restrictions on voting shall be clearly defined and communicated to the Choctaw people in all official announcements of the election.

CHAPTER 10.

ELECTION APPEAL PROCEDURES

§33-10-1 Application

(1) If a candidate believes that a violation(s) of this Code has occurred in the election in which they are a candidate, he or she (the “Complainant”) may file an appeal in accordance with the election appeal procedure outlined in this Chapter. Candidate qualifications are not subject to this Chapter. Challenges to a candidate’s qualifications must be made under Section 33-6-7(7) of this Code. Voter residency qualifications are not subject to this Chapter. Challenges to the validity of a voter’s residency must be made under Section 33-2-3 of this Code.

(2) As described in this Chapter, the appeal process begins with the Complainant filing a complaint with the Tribal Election Committee for a decision on the merits of the election complaint.

(3) If the Complainant is not satisfied with the decision of the Tribal Election Committee, the Complainant may seek judicial review of the decision with the Choctaw Supreme Court in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter. Similarly, the winning candidate in an election that has been voided by the Tribal Election Committee decision may seek judicial review of that decision by the Choctaw Supreme Court.

(4) Only the Complainant(s) who filed an appeal with the Tribal Election Committee, or the winning candidate in a voided election, may seek judicial review of any decision by the Tribal Election Committee. The Choctaw Supreme Court shall possess jurisdiction to adjudicate election appeals filed under this Chapter.

§33-10-2 Appeal to the Tribal Election Committee

The complaint must be in writing and submitted to the Tribal Election Committee within three (3) calendar days from the date of the election in which the violation is alleged to have occurred. Failure to file a complaint with the Tribal Election Committee within three (3) calendar days will forever bar any candidate from appealing the election result.

(2) A complaint must contain the following information:

- (A) Complainant’s name, address, telephone number and email address (if any);

Failure to comply with this requirement will result in the complaint being summarily dismissed.

(3) The Tribal Election Committee must investigate each complaint submitted.

(4) Upon receipt of a complaint, the Tribal Election Committee shall invite submissions from the winning candidate(s) in the challenged election to submit their own evidence bearing on the complaint. Those winning candidates shall be given three (3) business days of such Tribal Election Committee notice to submit such evidence or argument. The Tribal Election Committee shall thereafter issue a written statement of findings within five (5) business days of the deadline for receipt of the winning candidate(s) submission(s). These findings shall reference any evidence upon which the decision relies. The Tribal Election Committee's findings and decision shall be provided to the Complainant, the winning candidate(s), and to the Tribal Chief who shall provide same to the Tribal Council.

(5) The following guidelines shall be utilized by the Tribal Election Committee when considering complaints submitted: No official tribal election shall be voided by order of the Tribal Election Committee in response to a complaint unless the Complainant clearly demonstrates by a preponderance of the evidence that: (i) a violation(s) of the Code occurred, and; (ii) said violation(s) resulted in a strong likelihood of affecting the outcome of the election.

(6) Following the receipt and review of a properly executed complaint, and such other evidence before the Tribal Election Committee, the Tribal Election Committee shall issue findings:

(A) To dismiss the appeal, or

(B) To acknowledge the merit of the appeal but to reaffirm the election in question, or

(C) To acknowledge the merit of the appeal and to void the election in question.

(7) In the event that the Tribal Election Committee voids a tribal election as provided under subsection (6)(C) above, the Tribal Election Committee shall set a special election to fill the positions affected by the voiding of the election in question. All requirements governing official regular tribal elections, as specified in this Code, shall also govern a special election set under this subsection.

(8) More than one losing candidate may file an appeal with the Tribal Election Committee, and each appeal will be considered on its own merits.

§33-10-3 Judicial Review by the Choctaw Supreme Court

If the Complainant, or the winning candidate of an election that is voided by the Committee, is not satisfied with the decision of the Tribal Election Committee, that party may seek judicial review of the decision by filing an appeal petition with the Choctaw Supreme Court in accordance with the procedures below. The Choctaw Supreme Court may consolidate more than one candidate appeal petition in its discretion.

§33-10-4 Requirements for the Supreme Court Appeal Petition

(C) The factual and legal basis which meet one or more of the legal standards of review identified in Section 33-10-6(6).

The Petitioner may not submit any evidence that was not before the Tribal Election Committee.

(4) If an appeal petition fails to provide the required information identified in this Section, or if the required filing fee (under Section 33-10-5) is not paid upon filing of the appeal petition, the appeal is subject to dismissal by the Choctaw Supreme Court, on its own motion or on motion of any party.

§33-10-5 Filing Fees

§33-10-6 Judicial Review Procedures

(1) The Petitioner shall serve a copy of the appeal petition on the Tribal Election Committee, along with a copy delivered to the Tribal Chief and to the prevailing party(ies) below, within two (2) business days of filing the appeal petition with the Choctaw Supreme Court. The appeal petition served upon the Tribal Election Committee and delivered to the Tribal Chief shall have the "filed" stamped date on the front page of the petition. This submission shall constitute the record on appeal. The Tribal Election Committee shall deliver a copy of the answer and record to the Petitioner within two (2) business days of filing the answer and record with the Choctaw Supreme Court, and shall provide a copy thereof to the Tribal Chief.

(3) After the deadline for all appeal petitions to be filed has passed, the Choctaw Supreme Court:

(4) The Choctaw Supreme Court shall have original jurisdiction to review all proceedings initiated pursuant to Section 33-11-6 of this Code. All such proceedings shall be decided on the record. (5) All such proceedings, and all appeals filed under this Section, shall be deemed to involve an emergency matter of urgent and necessitous public concern and shall be heard and determined with all convenient speed.

(6) The Supreme Court shall have the power to stay actions of the Tribal Election Committee and the Chief, when such actions may impact the subject matter of the application, upon the filing of a petition until the court has ruled on the matter.

The description shall give a true and impartial statement of the purpose and effect of the initiative or referendum. Neither the summary nor the description shall be argumentative, nor likely to create prejudice, either for or against the measure. Such summary formulated by the Tribal Election Committee shall include the ballot title of the referendum or initiative in all petitions, ballots and other proceedings in relation thereto.

(3) When practicable, the statement posed by a referendum ballot title shall be written in such a way that an affirmative vote on the measure would leave the ordinance or resolution in full force and effect, and a negative vote on the measure would result in rejection or revocation to the ordinance or resolution.

(4) The issue posed by an initiative ballot shall be written in such a way that an affirmative vote would result in adoption of the proposed resolution, ordinance or Constitutional amendment, and a negative vote would result in the rejection of the proposed resolution, ordinance or Constitutional amendment.
